Death of S. A. Henton, Esq.

We tegret to learn of the death of S. A. Heaton, Esq., which occurred at the residence of his brother, in Clifton, Mason Co., W. Va., on the 10th inst. Mr. Heaton studied law with Daniel Peck, Esq., in this city, and after being admitted to the bar practiced for some time with James A. Macauley, Esq., under the firm name of Heaton & Macauley. He was at one time State Librarian. He removed to Colorado Territory in 1871 for the benefit of his health, and after an absence of a year or so returned to this State and engaged in publishing the Jackson county News, at Ravenswood, which position he held at the time of his death.

"POPULAR RESORTS AND How TO REACH THEM."-This is the title of a new ok just issued for the season of 1875 by John B. Bachelder. It does not claim to be a guide-book; it is rather a Gazettee of Pleasure-travel in the United States and fills a place in illustrated literature heretofore unoccupied. While it gives clearly the information required by the tourist, it also forms a beautiful table

COOLING THE ATMOSPHERE.—A writer in the Pholice Health recommends that a dish or basin large enough to present a good surface of water be placed in rooms where the heat is opgressive and the water changed once or twice on very hot days, to secure a general lowering of the temperature. The hot air of the room takes up the water in the form of atmospheric vapor and diffuses the greater coolness of the water throughout the room until air and water become of the same temperature. When this takes place fresh water should be put in the dish. He says that he has found a tumbler full of water potential enough when he has been sit ting in a small study, but the greater the surface of the water in contact with the air the more effectual will be the diffusion of atmospheric vapor The writer does not say whether the doors and windows are to ke kept open or closed, a condition that might have an important bearing on the success of the experiment. The thing is rather doubtful as to its feasibility, but it ressy enough to try, with the doors and vindows either shut or open, and with a vessel containing any quantity of water, from a tumbler full to a tub full.

As but few persons are aware of the immensity of this boat, a description may be of interest to those interested. The extreme length is 325 feet, breadth 55 feet, broadth 55 feet, from a midship fore and aft, and a guard 18 feet all around, then some idea of the proportions of this gigantic vessel may be formed. There are 300 floors in the boat 5 by 11 inches, one main keelson 10 by 20 inches, two bilge keelsons 8 by 14 inches, four clamps, four pointers, and fourteen floor streaks. The bottom and knuckle plank are five inches thick, and from fifty to seventy feet long. In no other ship-yard in this country, perhaps, would these immense timbers be handled. In the construction of this boat over 1,000,000 feet of water-seasoned oak has been used, and 75,000 feet of Florida pine conthe construction of this boat over 1,000, 000 feet of water-seasoned oak has been used, and 75,000 feet of Florida pine consumed in laying the main deck, beside a great quantity of other timber. For fastenings over 100 tons of iron have been used, 13,000 drift bolts driven, besides nails innumerable. No one can look at this magnificent boat without feeling impressed with its superior feeling impressed with its superior strength and safety. The tonnage is estimated at 3,800 tons, storage capacity 10,000 bales of cotton. Draught, alt four feet, forward three feet. Thus it will be seen two points of great interest have been attained; a light draught of water and great carrying capacity. Another departure by the owners of the Mary Bell is the boilers. They have contracted for a battery of eight steel boilers having three times the tensile strength of iron, thus assuring entire immunity from exthus assuring entire immunity from explosion. The-engines will be 35 inches in diameter with 9 feet stroke. Wheels 38 feet in diameter, 16½ feet bucket. Sudden Death of Jackson, the Defaulting U. S. Collector—Re is Supposed to have Taken Poison.

LOUISVILLE, July 16.—George N. Jack son, the Deputy U. S. Collector, whose alleged defalcation of $45,000 was given in these dispatches yesterday, died a little after midnight. He evaded the question whether he had taken poison or not, but a post mortem examination was had this afternoon at the instance of the insurance companies, Jackson having $12,500 on his life. Collector Buckner positively refuses to give any additional facts to those published in the Courier-Journal this morning, but it is now thought that sides nails innumerable. No one can look at this magnificent boat without feeling impressed with its superior posing such entire confidence in Jack strength and safety. The tonnage is son's honesty that he was able to cover covered yesterday afternoon by a special agent of the Treasury Department who had been instructed to examine into the discrepancy of some $45,000 of the Louismember of Church, representative from the Tenth Ward in the Board of School Trustees, and esteemed and respected by all who knew him. It is found that he has been living for some time in a style which his salary of $2,000 per annum did not warrant. He had given bond to Col-lector Buckner for $25,000, and there may be sufficient property found to indemnify the Collector for his loss. The news of the defalcation created a profound sensation in this city. Jackson leaves a young

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL AND DISTRIC

ATTORNEY.
WASHINGTON, July 16.—The complaint Washington, July 16.—The complaint of the Postmaster General against District Attorney Fisher was in consequence of apparent listlessness and lack of interest displayed by the District Attorney in his preparation of the Hinds case. Seeing this and fearing that Mr. Fisher had too much business in his office to allow him to properly attend to these cases the Postmaster General offered assistance by the employment of an assistant counsel, which Fisher declined, the Postmaster General reported this fact to the President and was directed by him to again make an offer of assistance to Fisher; he did so and the offer was again declined; Fisher asofter of assistance to risher; he did so and the offer was again declined; Fisher as-suring the Postmater General that he would attend to the case. By lack of in-terest and failure to devote the proper time to the case before the trial, mistakes occurred which resulted in the acquittal of Hinds.

The Welcome to Cornell.

ITHICA, N. Y., July 16.—The Cornell University and Freshmen crews arrived here at 8:30 to-night. All afternoon people from the surrounding country were coming to town to assist in the welcome, and long before the arrival of the train a an immense crowd had assembled at the station. The cars which brought the crews and boats through from Saratoga were profusely decorated with the colors of the University. When they came the crew were taken from the cars upon the shoulders of their friands to a handsome hook and ladder truck, upon which a platform had been placed with chairs for the crews substitutes and winners of prizes in the foot races. They were then welcomed home in a brief speech by Harlam L. Bostwick. The procession was then formed, headed by the 51st regiment band of Syracuse, the friends of the crew drawing the truck. The line of march was through the principal streets, and all along the route public buildings, business houses and private residences were brilliantly illuminated and festooned in the colors of the victorious boatmen. Every street along the line of march was densely thronged, and the victors were heartily cheered throughout the march. The procession proceeded to Devitt park, where the crew were again welcomed in behalf of the citizens by Rev. C. M. Tyler. After his remarks President White in a brief speech congratulated the boys upon their victory. The procession then reformed and marched to the University grounds. Cascadilla Place and other buildings were handsomely illuminated, and a grand triumpal arch had been erected. A brilliant display of fire-works took place on the arrival of the crews.

THE THOMPSON HABEAS CORPUS.
ST. LOUIS, July 16.—It was supposed last night that the Thompson habeas corpus case was closed and that he and Sheriff Anderson were on their way to Memphis. But Thompson's attorneys applied to Judge Jones of the Criminal Court late in the evening for another habeas corpus, which was issued, and the officers overtook Anderson and his prisoner at Kinswick, 20 miles below here, and brought them back to the city this afternoon. Sheriff Anderson made a return to Judge Jones, who after hearing the case decided that he had no jurisdiction, the case already having been acted the case decided that he had no jurisdic-tion, the case already having been acted upon by a superior Court. He remanded the prisoner to Sheriff Anderson, but whother that officer will succeed in get-ting his prisoner to Memphis is some what problematical.
